

Document No. 7
 NO CHANGE in Class.
 Class: CHANGED TO: CONFIDENTIAL
 Auth: DIA
 Date: 230498 By: 025

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 18 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
 Next Review Date: 2008

25X1A

FLD
 98

CONFIDENTIAL

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUP INTELLIGENCE REPORT

COUNTRY China

SUBJECT Communist Order of Battle: Manchuria, Shantung

ORIGIN As Stated

DATE:

INFO. As Stated

DIST. 31 March 1947

PAGES 1

SUPPLEMENT

25X1X

MANCHURIA

25X1X

25X1C

1. The Communist advance toward Chang-chun has reached Mi-sha-tzu (125-28, 44-08) and Hsiao-ho-lung (125-09, 44-04), both approximately 20 kilometers northeast and northwest, respectively, of the city. Unit dispositions and operations in the area are as follows:

1 Column

N 5 Division

N 6 Division

Mi-sha-tzu

attacking Te-hui (125-43, 44-31) from the east

6 Column

16 Brigade

17 Brigade

attacking Te-hui from the southeast

2 Division (

359 Brigade

attacking Te-hui from the northeast

30 Brigade

47 Mongolian Brigade

Tao-lai-chao (125-55, 44-53) 25X1A

Tien Sung Detachment

30 kilometers northeast of Chang-chun

25X1X

2. The 11 Brigade of 4 Column is ten miles north of Tien-shui-chan (123-34, 40-59). The 8 Brigade of 3 Column and the 10 Brigade of 4 Column have moved northwest to Hsiao-cheng-tzu (125-47, 42-03).

SHANTUNG

25X1X

25X1X

25X1C

3. The Communists lost Ming-shui (117-31, 36-45) on 25 February. The 1 Garrison Brigade, plus some unidentified troops, with an over-all strength of 5000 men, occupies Hsi-ying (117-15, 36-33).

25X1X

25X1A

CONFIDENTIAL

WARNING NOTICE: THIS DISTRIBUTION LISTING MUST BE